PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: The National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association has set the week of February 9 through February 15, 1958, as National Beauty Salon Week, a week dedicated to more beautiful women; and

WHEREAS: This association, which is devoted to constantly improving the standards of professional beauty care, seeks to help all women to greater beauty; and

WHEREAS: The members of this association annually conduct an intensive program to provide professional beauty care to people confined to homes for the aged and orphaned, hospitals and other similar institutions; and

WHEREAS: This program has contributed immeasurably to the physical and mental well-being of well over a million inmates of such institutions in recent years, receiving praise and recognition from the medical profession for its great therapeutic value; and

WHEREAS: The members of this association, in cooperation with the entire beauty industry, seek to maintain and enhance one of America's greatest national assets, the beauty of our women; and

WHEREAS: This profession offers unlimited opportunities for creative careers to the youth of America;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joe Foss, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of February 9-15 as

and urge the citizens of this state to join with me in paying honor to the hairdressers and cosmetologists of the state whose services are dedicated to the good grooming of the women of our state, and do further urge them to join in the observation of this celebration.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 31st day of January, 1958.
